Ordained Clergy under Apostolic Succession: Clergy already ordained in Apostolic Succession and in good standing with your current affiliation may be received into the CEEC simply by transfer.

Clergy not ordained under Apostolic Succession: An initial interview will be taken to determine current educational and ministerial qualifications. Additionally, consent must be given for a background investigation to be completed. A letter from your current endorsing body (deacon board or elders for non-historical/independent denominations) indicating no current issues of an immoral or unethical nature exist.

Candidates for a Seminary Degree (MTS or MDiv): For currently enrolled students in seminary, an application can be completed and an interview accomplished to enter into a Postulant period coinciding with your studies. When contacting the CEEC, please indicate your ministry emphasis area (missions, pastoral, etc.) in your contact e-mail - this will aid the CEEC in getting you in touch with a bishop in the best position to assist you.

Lay Ministers/Second Career Callings: The CEEC understands the value of experienced Lay Ministers and those who have been called to ministry as a second vocation. An initial interview will be taken to determine current educational and ministerial qualifications. In most cases, a canonical examination (open book, 4 weeks to complete) will be given to aid in developing a personalized continuing education program.

Congregations/Parishes desiring to affiliate: Situations and circumstances dictate the varying means available to receive whole congregations.
